The sad, dramatic, if ambiguous, life of Juan Ponce Enrile. The 753-page of "Juan Ponce Enrile: A Memoir" has many things going for it. For one, the simple yet striking cover layout doesn't call attention to itself and for another, it is well-edited (by Nelson Navarro) which makes for smooth, easy reading. It is, by turn, a no-nonsense book about someone's life as he lived it and how he survived it.
