The worship of Cybele was characteristic of Thrace, whither it spread from Asia Minor at a very early period, and it deserves notice that Hypsipyle and Myrina (the name of one of the chief towns) are Amazon names, which are always connected with Asiatic Cybele-worship. Coming down to a better authenticated period, we find that Lemnos was conquered by Otanes, one of the generals of Darius FIG.

Use whither in a sentence | whither sentence examples

Wither is a verb meaning (1) to shrivel or (2) to cause to shrivel. It's often used metaphorically, especially in the participial adjective withering, which means devastating or overwhelming. It's also used in the phrasal verb wither away, which is more emphatic than wither, connoting death or disappearance.
